Lackaye at Keith's---Harvard Prize Play at Poli's---Stars in Films

In Continuous and Film Theaters

STRAND.

Mrs. Fiske, one of the most distin-guished of dramatic artists, will be seen at Moore's Strand Theater today, to at Moore's Strand Theater today, to morrow, and Tuesday in a photoplay version of Thackeray's "Vanity Fair." The camera production is largely a character study of willful, wiley Becky Sharp, the central figure, and faithfully depicts her achemings, her rise in the world, her complex love affairs, and her final defeat and return to the floral bannai defeat and return to the noral bagar.

The production is elaborately and beautifully staged, the principal scene depicting the ball given in Brussels on the eve of the battle of Waterloo. Mrs.
Piske's support includes Bigelow Cooper. George A. Wright, Helen Strickland, and Robert Brower.

Howard Estabrook will be featured Wednesday and Thursday in a photoplay 8f Henry Rowland's novel "The Closing Net." For the remainder of the week C. Aubrey Smith will be presented in "John Glade's Honor," an adaptasion of Alfred Sutro's play.

CRANDALL'S.

The management of Crandall's Thea-er announces a program extraordinary for this week. Beginning with today, for this week. Beginning with today. Theda Bara will again be presented in "Sin." Tomorrow, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, William Fox will present Dorothy Bernard, supported by Bhurlow Bergen, in "The Little Gypsy," a romance of love, thrills and Gramatic power, adapted from James M. Barrie's famous story, "The Little Minister." From advance notices the photodramatic version of "The Little Minister." From advance notices the photodramatic version of "The Little Minister." From advance notices the photodramatic version of "The Little Minister." From Javance notices the World Friday and Saturday, the World Film Corporation will present Holbrook Blinn, in a film version of Owen Davis' drama, "The Family Cupboard," Assisting Mr. Blinn will be Prances Nelson playing the role created on the stage by Irene Fenwick.

Prof. Heitmulier's orchestra will give its usual popular concerts in addition to rendering its pipe organ recitals.

GARDEN.

GARDEN.

Mary Miles Minter, child star of "The Littlest Rebel," will be the attraction at Moore's Garden Theater for today, bomorrow, and Tuesday in "Emmy of Stork's Nest." The picture, which provides Miss Minter with plenty of opportunities, has a story of more than usual strength.

Wednesday there will be a double program, "The-Wheels of Justice," with Dorothy Kelly and other Vitigraph stars, and "The Bread Line," in which will be seen Francella Billington and Ralph Lewis. Thursday and Friday Harold Lockwood will again be seen in "The House of Scandal."

Hanold Lockwood will again be seen in "The House of Scandal."

An innovation is announced for Saturday, when Earle Williams will appear in person and activer a monologue detailing some of his experiences in similard. The surrounding program on this day wil linclude "The Awakening," featuring Earle Williams and Anita Stewart, and "Secret Service," with Fiorence La Badic.

AMUSEMENTS

MRB. FIBEL - Strand

which will bring back to the Capital the wonderful barytone, Emilio de Gogorza, whose appearance here last season was one of the most interesting events of the entire season, and Christine Miller, whose wonderful con-traito has made her one of the most traito has made her one of the most sought-after soloists of the country. Following these two artists the series will include Julia Culp, with Coenraad Bos. Evan Williams, and Olive Kline, Louise Homes, Gabrilowitsch, Anna Case, and Per Biorn, Oscar Seaje, Ruth K. Townsend and Mary Carlisle Howe; Arrigo Serato and Matja Nies-Stone, Frances Alda and Frank La Forge and the famous Flonzaley Quartet with Ernest Hutcheson. Next Week's Films

At Moore's Strand Theater next week Sunday to Tuesday Edith Story nd Antonio Moreno will be featured in The Dust of Egypt." Wednesday and Thursday Guy Oliver and Eugenia Bes serer will be presented in "The Circula

The remainder of the week will be given over to Arnold Daly in his latest photoplay success, "An Affair of Three next week in "The Soul of Broadway." the latest William Fox production. Miss Suratt is said to wear 120 gowns in the play. William E. Shay heads the cast of players appearing in support of Miss Suratt. Many interesting scenes are depicted in the film, one in particular showing the famous tenderioin station on West Thirtieth street, New York. Friday and Saturday, Clara Kimball Young will be featured in the World Film production "Heart of the Blue Ridge."

Javas, singers and dancers; the carnival four, and many others is offered. The complete cast for the engagement for the company includes Will J. Kennedy, Jack Miller, Flower Shirley, Harry P. Keely, Harry Evans, Flo Davis, Lottle Blankford, Kitty Forseight, and the Princeton sisters. There is also a chorus numbering more than a score of girls, who have been trained in the musical ensembles by Marie Doro will be seen in "The White Pearl," a photo production by Rayling Personnel of the Shirley, Harry P. Keely, Harry Evans, Flo Davis, Lottle Blankford, Kitty Forseight, and the Princeton sisters. There is also a chorus numbering more than a score of girls, who have been trained in the World Film production "Heart of the Blue White Pearl," a photo production by

Assembly Dances at Armory

Are Now Open to Public

Assembly dances will be given at the National Rifles' Armory every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday evenings, from 8:30 until 12 p. m.. Two bands, string and brass, and spotlight

AMUSEMENTS

AMUSEMENTS

BERNARD SHAW'S Famous Fable Play

an Who Married A Dumb Wife By ANATOLE FRANCE

With O. P. HEGGIE and London Company Direct From Wallack's Theater, N. Y.

NEXT WEEK-SEATS NOW THE MESSES, SHUBERT OFFER MME. PETROVA THE CELEBRATED ANGLO-POLISH STAR

EDWARD LOCKE'S THE REVOLT A PLAY THAT WILL SET EVERY WOMAN TALKING AND ALL MEN THINKING,

Tonight Superb Grand Opera Concert

Principals, Orchestra, Cherus and Ballet in a Rare Program Including Famous Orchestral Numbers, Arias, Ducts and Ensemble from "La Boheme," "Tosca," "Carmen," "La Favorita," "Lohengrin "Faust," "Lucis," "Rigioletto," "Traviata," "Barber of Seville," "Martha

Prices, 50e to $1.50. Seats at 1 P. M.

nightly | Boston Symphony

features.

The special feature program is as fol The special feature program is as fol-lows: Monday night—Country store; prizes with amateur dancing contest, exhibition dancing. Wednesday night— —Carnival, open to all; souvenirs; open dance contest with prizes. Thursday night—Two bands, keno dance, and and exhibition in dancing. Saturday night—Two bands, keno dance, and prizes.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

of the program. An added attraction is the form of an olio with a program comprising all-star vaudeville acts, including Evans and Davis, singers and dancers; the carnival four, and many Marie Doro will be seen in "The White Pearl," a photo production by Edith Barnard Delano, at Loew's Co-lumbia Theater next week. "The White Attractions of unusual quality with make up the program at Moore's Garden Theater next week, with Earle Williams appearing in person Sunday with a monologue dealing with his film experiences.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday Willion Lackaye, Washington's native son, will be seen in "A Man of Shame." Thursday, by request, the attraction will be "The Wheels of Justice," with Dorothy Kelly in the leading role. Friday and Saurday Paul McAlilster, Gall Kane, and Bruce McRae will again be seen in "Via Wireless."

The Poli Players will be seen next

AMUSEMENTS

Senta Now Selling for TEN STAR CONCERT SERIES

Friday Afternoons, 4:30, NATIONAL THEATER. First Concert OCT. 29 EMILIO de GOGORZA The Eminent Barytone. CHRISTINE MILLER

The Talented Contraite. Artists for Other Concerts Includ

JULIA CULP.
OBCAR SEAGLE,
GABRILOWITSCH
LOUISE HOMER,
PLONZALEY QUARTET,
FHANCIS ADA,
ARRIGO SERATO,
EVAN WILLIAMS,
ANNA CASE.

Per Hiorn, Olive Kline, Ruth Town-send, Matsa Niessen-Stone, Mary Car-lisle Howe, Frank La Forge, Ernest Hutcheson, Coenrand Ros.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICES

Masonic Auditorium New York Ave. and 13th St. N. W. Centinuous from $130 to 10.45.

TONIGHT Metro Picture Corporation presents GAIL KANE

In Clyde Fitch's romantic drama in 5 acts, "HER GREAT MATCH"

ARCADE AUDITORIUM 14th and Park Road.

Band Concerts Today, 40 Pieces, Including Jean Parisot, Baritone.

Afternoon, 3:30—Admission, 15c.

Evening, 8:30 — Admission, 25c. Menday Evening PREE INSTRUCTION In Dancing, 7:30 & 8:30
Adulta, 25c; Children, 15c.
Skating Daily, 3 to 5:30, 15c—Skates Included.

DANCING National Rifles
Every Mon., Wed., Thurs. & Sat., 5:20 to 12.
Band and Orch. Dancing Contest Exhibitions.

THOUSAND

LAUGHS

Seat Sale Opens January 4, February 15, and March 15 Dr. Muck at the first concert will play The general sale of seats for the Boston Symphony concerts will open at Drosp's next Wednesday morning, October 12. The orchestra is out with an announcement of the plans it has made for the five concerts to be given in Washington. As in the past, they will darriage of Figaro' and the "Ave Come on Tuesday afternoons at 4:30 of Fire."

AMUSEMENTS

AMUSEMENTS

Only theater in Washington offering exclusively American and foreign stars of the

Charles Frohman Presents

COCK O' THE WALK

By Henry Arthur Jones

raed From the Saturday Evening Post Stories by Montague Gla

THE THEATER BEAUTIFUL.

ALL THIS WEEK MATS-Daily-250

EVES-25, 50, 75c

Present

The Great Harvard Prize Comedy

A. H. VAN BUREN

Next Week - - The New York Success "AT BAY"

THE ARTISTS' COURSE-Second Season COURSE OF FIVE CONCERTS By World-Renowned Artists Season 1915-1916, New National Theater, 4:30 o'clock

Friday, Dec. 3-MME. EMMY DESTINN The Great Soprano from the Metropolitan Opera, N. Y., with Assisting-

Friday, Jan. 14-MISCHA ELMAN, Violinist Friday, Feb. 18-Mme. QADSKI, Saprane, and CLARENCE WHITEHILL Sarytone, from the Metropolitin Opera, N. Y. Joint Recital-Wagneria

Friday, March 3, HAROLD BAUER, Plabist. PABLO CASALS, The World's Greatest Collist. Joint Recital.

Friday, March 31—PASQUALE AMATO Barytone from the Metropolitan Opera, N. V., and FLORENCE MACBETH, Seprano, Chicago Grand Opera. Jeint Recital eason Tickets—Orch., $10; Balcony, $10, $7.50; Gallery, $5; Boxes. $150.
Orders for sents, accompanied by check, may be mailed to
MRS. WILSON-GREENE, 2647 Connecticut Ave.

WHITNEY FASHION SHOW

DIRECT PROM COHAN THEATER, NEW YORK

100,000 collection of authentic advance styles. Last word from Paris and Fifth avenue. Displayed on heautiful living models.

SUNNING NEW LINGERIP CREATONS
MARTEST AFTERNOON COSTUMES

MARTEST AFTERNOON COSTUMES

UGGESTIONS FOR WOMEN OF EVERY TYPE

Complete Theatrical Performance Devoted to the Fine Art of Dress Entitled

WINNING A MAN

Two Matinees, Thursday and Friday Afternoons, October 21 and 22, 2:30, Prices, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00 75c, 50c.
Sale Opens at Decop's, Eith and G. Next Wednesday Morning, October 13,

MISS GERALDINE FARRAR Prima Denna From the National Theater, Tuesday Afternoon, November 9, 4:20, 42:50, 42:50, 42:50, 41:50, 41:50, 10 Mrs. Wilson-Greene; 2617 Conn. avg.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

DR. KARL MICK, Conductor.

SEASON OF FIVE CONCERTS

Tuesday, Nov. 2, Nov. 30, Jan 4, Feb. 15, March 14, National Theater, 4:30, Soloista-Florence Hinkle, Photz Kreisler, Ernest Schelling, 08, SIP GARGLOWING.

F AND 12th STREETS N. W.

The Charity Girl."

SPECIAL
TATELLAR
George East, the "Premiere Danspuse" in His Wonderful Assumptions
Assisted by the McGinnis Brothers and the George East Greenstranted Brothers And Hit In "Motoring"

Mac Allit In "Motoring"

Mon. Tue. Wed.

RALPH HERZ

October 11, 12, 13 DANIEL FROHMAN Superb Emotional Artiste

PAULINE

Thurs. Fri. Sat. Sun. October 14, 15, 16, 17 DANIEL FROHMAN

THURLOW BERGEN

Ten Star Concert Series

Friday afternoon, October 29, is the date of the initial concert of the T.

AMUSEMENTS

MANUEL QUIROGA Extra

Crandalls

Gogorza Will Open

MARY

Yesterday

World's Greatest Automobile Race Mr. Loew Has Made Special Arrangements For Showing Replistic Pictures of the World's Greatest Auto Bace Which The Sheepshead BAY Specific Astron. CUP AND 850,000 AT

Other Photoplays are shown in Conjunction With the Above. Spele by An Augmented Symphony Orchestra.

OPEN 12:00 NOON TO 11:00 P. M. MATINER 16 AND 15e

MARY PICKFORD

ENTIRE NEW SHOW

BE LA TOUR

FEELEY and McCLOUD - The Barbary Coast Dancers Leo Hoyt—Lucile Manion—Sam Hymas—Rose Ford—Mike Foster 24 Pretty Girls in Beautiful Costumes

TODAY THE GAY NEW YORKERS

COMING-"THE GYPSY MAIDS"